It is your responsibility as the consumer to report all information received from the credit bureaus and other companies that are disputed to your representative in order to continue providing your services for the time enrolled. Any delay in information will not extend your enrollment period/ end date. Your credit freeze may only be lifted at the end of your enrollment period and it is your responsibility to store your credit freeze codes in a safe place and can only be removed by you. If new inquiries arise during the enrollment period and/or after your consultation but prior to enrollment, you will be charged an additional $25 for each additional item that was not included in your consultation to be handled.
